Fr. Stash Dailey, St. Michael Parish and lifelong Columbus resident will walk you through his calling that began in the 2nd grade and more importantly his perspective now in serving his vocation as a priest. This tradition is a great benefit to all that attend to gain inspiration to continue answering your call to holiness and serve as an example and supporter to future vocations. Fr. Dailey will highlight how Adoration, Family, Religious, Peers, Catholic School, Holy Mass, Marion Devotion all helped with his faith formation that led him to the priesthood. Hearing the testimony of Fr. Dailey on celebrating Mass is a powerful reminder that Christ himself is in the holy Eucharist and is one of the greatest treasures that the Church has. It's important that we remember "You did not choose me, but I chose you," (Jn 15:16). All of us can learn from a newly ordained priest to examine our own lives and ensure we respond to our Lord's unique and individual calling.
